BUSH GUILTY OF MURDER.

He is convicted of killing a Negro Woman at Montgomery.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 6.—The jury in the case of Columbus Bush, a negro, charged with the murder of Sarah Coleman, a negro woman, has returned a verdict finding the accused guilty of murder.

The facts proved the case to be a cold-blooded homicide. One night in July, 1898, Bush left home telling Sarah Coleman to remain there till he returned. He went over to the house of a friend and while there met the woman. This angered Bush and he ordered her to go back to the house. The man had a shotgun, and when she refused to obey he threatened her. Finally she started home, he following a few paces behind her. They went across an old field between Boguesdamma and Perry street, near the intersection of Julia. As they got near Julia street the woman said she wanted some water and started into a neighbor's house to get a drink. Bush called her to halt, the woman at the time being within a few feet of the door. She did not stop and as she was about to enter the door, Bush fired his gun, the contents lodging in the woman's stomach, she having turned slightly as he called.

Calvert's Narrow Escape.

UNION, S. C., April 6.—The through freight on the Southern ran into the horse and buggy driven by Mr. J. L. Calvert, killing the horse, demolishing the buggy and throwing Mr. Calvert about 20 feet. He was up next morning, but is complaining of his back, and his limbs are considerably bruised. His escape from death is miraculous.

WINE OF CARDUI
Woman Knows Woman.
ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.
I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.
MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.
Wine of Cardui
Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

GRAVE ERROR DISCOVERED.

North Carolina Legislature Will Meet to Make Correction.

RALPH, April 6.—Directly after the legislature adjourned last March the Democrats found there was an error in the verbiage of the constitutional amendment to limit the negro franchise on which the people are to vote next August. In one place it is required to be ratified by a majority vote and in another by a majority of the registered vote.

The legislature meets again in June for the sole purpose of safeguarding the amendment and the election law and will make the correction by striking out the provision requiring a majority of the registered vote. The Republicans had thought the Democrats unaware of this defect and counting on registering all the negroes and then if the latter did not vote, it would be nearly as dangerous to the amendment as votes against it.

ASKS FOR $40,000 DAMAGES

James Chapman Sues Ancient Order of United Workmen.

KING FISHER, O. T., April 6.—James Chapman has filed a suit for $40,000 damages against Oklahoma grand lodge and King Bisher lodge, Ancient Order United Workmen, for injuries inflicted during his initiation.

He says he was bound hand and foot to a board, then tossed in the air from a sheet of canvas, and finally allowed to fall to the floor with great force breaking bones in his shoulders and spraining and injuring his spine and neck, so that he is permanently crippled and has suffered greatly, both in body and mind.

He alleges that this rough horse play was kept up even after he protested and informed them that he had been badly injured.

Electric Railway For Anderson.

ANDERSON, S. C., April 6.—At a meeting of the city council President Orr of the Anderson Water, Light and Power company submitted a proposition for a franchise to construct an electric street railway in this city. Mr. Orr explained that his ultimate object was to make Anderson a great cotton center and to connect Belton, Piedmont, Pelzer and other points by an electric railway.
